

I. Instructions for playing the game:

- A. How to win:
  - 1. Defeat all the enemy space ships in all 16 levels without losing your current life.
    - a. Destroy an enemy space ship by taking away all of its hit points.
    - b. You will complete a level when you defeat all of the enemies in that level without losing your life. If you defeat all of the enemies, but then you are hit by a laser/bomb, the level will start over and you will lose a life.
- B. Gameplay:
  - 1. Hitting an enemy with one laser will take away one of its hit points.
    - a. Different enemies have a different total number of hit points.
  - 2. If you are hit by a laser or an enemy reaches the bottom of the screen where your space ship is, you will lose a life.
  - 3. You have a specified number of lives per level, if you run out of lives, you lose.
  - 4. There are four boss levels; if you lose a life during a boss battle, the boss will not reset.
- C. Moving:
  - 1. Move the Millennium Falcon left and right by pressing on the left and right arrow keys respectively. Pressing both arrow keys at once will cause the ship to stop moving. The Millennium Falcon cannot move up or down, just left and right.
  - 2. An Xbox controller may also be plugged in to move the Millennium Falcon with the D-Pad, the Left Analog Stick, or the Right Analog Stick.
- D. Shooting:
  - 1. Fire lasers from the Millennium Falcon by pressing the space bar. One press of the space bar will simultaneously fire two lasers parallel to each other.
  - 2. The Millennium Falcon will fire as quickly as you can press the space bar.
  - 3. An Xbox controller may also be plugged in to fire lasers with A, B, X, Y, Right Button, Right Trigger, Left Button, or Left Trigger.
- E. Levels of Difficulty:
  - 1. There are four levels of difficulty:
    - a. Youngling (Beginner) – the player has 10 lives per level
    - b. Padawan (Intermediate) – the player has 6 lives per level
    - c. Jedi Knight (Advanced) – the player has 3 lives per level
    - d. Jedi Master (Never tell me the odds) – the player has 1 life
- F. Cheating:
  - 1. There are a couple options for cheating:
    - a. No cheating – Normal gameplay
    - b. Cheating – Allows you to play with cheats
  - 2. There are three specific ways you can cheat:
    - a. Automatic Fire – No need to press the space bar, the Millennium Falcon will automatically fire as fast as it can
    - b. Invincible Shielding – Your shields are invincible and no lasers or bombs will ever hurt you; however, if an enemy invades, you will still lose a life
    - c. Automatic Fire and Invincible Shielding – Play through the game like a boss
- G. Before you start a game:
  - 1. Nothing has to be done before you can start a game.
    - a. You can however test out how the Millennium Falcon moves and fires before you start playing a game.

2. You can change settings before you start playing the game, but once you start playing, you must quit the current game in order to change settings again.
- H. To change settings:
1. Click on settings before you start a game, change settings, and click OK.
- I. To start a game:
1. Click on start.
- J. While playing a game:
1. Your number of lives left and the number of enemies you have destroyed will appear on the left hand side of the screen.
  2. You may pause and later resume a game at any time by clicking pause/resume.
  3. You may quit the game at any time by clicking quit.